Recovering Burned Money.

The American Express Company had several safes in the cars which were burned at the recent railroad disaster at Tiooga Center, N. Y., January 23d. The company did not open the safes—as they contained, among other things, paper money, that if burned would be destroyed beyond all hope of redemption if carelessly handled—but sent them to Washington to be opened in the basement of the Treasury by the experts from the redemption division of the Treasurer's office. In the burnt mass were found jewelry, including a lot of diamonds and watches, gold and silver coin, legal-tender notes, national bank notes, Government coupons, and railroad bonds. The coin was melted in all manner of shapes. The jewelry, except the diamonds, is worthless.
The burnt legal tender notes were a black mass, with slight crevices on the sides, showing the separation of note from note.
The seals and brittle remains were separated with great care. The experts, by examination, were enabled to identify the notes, together with their respective numbers.— They will be replaced by new notes. One young lady is busy on the coupons, and has identified a number of 4 per cent. coupons representing $500 each, and 4 1/2 per cent. coupons representing $11 75 each. These will also be redeemed. Such is the experience with which, apparently, nothing but black brick masses are handled that it is very likely that every note, coupon, and bond that was burned will be separated and identified.

New Fire-Proof Building Material.

The staidity of American invention, says Chambers' Journal, is proverbial; it dis-dains belief in the impossible. We now learn that fire-proof houses can be built of cotton and straw. In preparing these materials raw cotton of inferior quality, the scattered refuse of plantations and sweep-ings of factories are mixed and converted into a paste, which becomes as hard as stone, and is then called architectural concrete. It may be made in large slabs, whereby the building of a house would be rapid in comparison with the practice of laying brick after brick, and about one-third the cost. For the other part where straw is treated in a way already known, and converted into pasteboard. The sheets thus prepared are soaked in a solution which hardens the fibres, and are then compressed under enormous power into beams and boards of any required size; and the effect of the soaking is said to render them difficult of combustion.

A drag, driven by an elegantly attired lady with a trim and neatly dressed colored boy perched on the footman's seat behind, was passing through the street, when it was, espied by an old negro woman.— "Bress de Lord!" she exclaimed, raising her hands as she spoke, "bress de Lord, I never expected to see dit. Wonder what dat young cullud gemman pays dat white oman for driving dat kerridge? I know d' it'd come, but never expected to lib to see dit. Dis nigger ready to go 'way now."

Dean Swift was once dining with a family in which the matron boasted of the number of centuries in which the magical prefi"de" had been the rightful property of her ancestors. The dean heard the tedious and oft-told tale to the end, and then delivered his opinion of all that sort of nonsense by saying, "Madame, will you kindly help me to another piece of that D—umpling?"

As HONEST MAN.—The Hon. John C.
Smith, who lately retired from the office of State Treasurer of Illinois, made up in full to the State from his meagre possessions the sum of $15,000 which was stolen from the office during his incumbency, two expert thieves having drawn over the portion of the depository with a wire package of currency containing that amount.

Mrs. Partington was recently induced to make a trip from Chelsea to Boston, and her nerves were so agitated by the excitement of the trip that as she jumped ashore she exclaimed: "Thank heaven, I'm again on vice versa."

They had been at the masquerade, where she had recognized him at once. "Was it the loud beating of my heart, my darling, that told you I was near?" murmured he.
"Oh, no," she replied. "I recognized your crooked legs."

"Do you follow a sedentary occupation?" asked the Judge, jocosely, of a vagrant.
"Well, I should relax my features," was the response; "all the money I have had in ten years I have got from sitting on juries."

Those persons who assert that Christianity is losing its hold upon our people, are evidently non-church-goers. Clergymen, to-day, command higher salaries and wear more expensive clothes to church than ever before.—Puck.

"What," asked the teacher, "was the greatest obstacle Washington encountered in crossing the Delaware?" And the smart bad boy thought for a minute and then made answer, "The toll man."

It would be quite easy to pay the national debt by imposing a tax on beauty. There isn't a woman living in the country who would not demand to be assessed.

The Wheel of Fortune.

The wheel of fortune makes queer turns sometimes. The following story shows what a turn it made in the life of Senator Bruce, the colored United States Senator from Mississippi:
The late Senator Bogey, of Missouri, was once anxious to have a pension bill passed for a constituent, and came over to the Republican side to ask support for it. He approached the colored Senator from Mississippi, and said: "Now look here, Bruce, vote for this, won't you? I only want another vote or two, and you can carry it through for me. It is a meritorious case."
"Certainly," said Senator Bruce. "You know, Senator, that I have always been willing to do you any favor you asked."
"I never asked you any favor in my life till this moment," replied the Missouri Senator.
"Oh, yes, you have," replied Bruce.— You may remember once, many years ago, that you were going from St. Louis down the river on a steamboat, and you were hurrying along to catch the boat with a big valise. You passed a little barefooted mulatto, and said: 'Here, you little black rascal, take this valise and come on with me.'— The boy took the hand-bag, and when you came near the boat, you said it was about to push off, and you ran on ahead, and just crossed the gang plank as it was drawn in. The boy, however, had not been able to keep up with you, and arrived too late.
You stood on the lower deck and yelled:
'Throw that valise aboard, you black rascal!
I can't go without my valise.' But the boat had moved out till the boy was afraid it would fall into the river if he tried to throw it, and, besides, he expected to receive a quarter for carrying it, and you had, apparently, forgotten all about that. The valise was not thrown, and you made the captain of the boat come back to the dock again to get it, and the boy collected the quarter. Now, do you remember that circumstance, Senator?" concluded Bruce.
"I do," admitted Senator Bogey.
"Well," said Bruce, "I was the little mulatto boy that carried your valise, and I am just as ready to accommodate you today as I was then. I'll vote for your bill."

Secretary of the Navy Goff.

Secretary of the Navy Goff, while a prisoner in Libby prison, was put into close confinement as a hostage for Maj. Armesey of the Confederate army, who had been taken inside the Union lines and sentenced to be shot as a spy. Upon the execution of Armesey Goff was to be instantly shot.
His sufferings were extreme, and he was compelled to live on rats skinned and cooked by the negroes and smuggled to him.— He not only bore this for 87 days, but wrote a letter, now on file in the War Department, in which he said that his life ought not to stand in the way of determining Armesey's fate. "The life of a single soldier," he wrote, "ought not to stand in the way of adherence to a great principle." Gen. Goff was finally exchanged, after a transfer to the penitentiary at Salisbury, N. C., in August, 1864.

Brains Wix.

A young man, a graduate of Dartmouth College, and an active law student, who had the misfortune to lose his hearing, having settled on a farm, writes thus of the occupation he has chosen:—
"There isn't much fun on a farm, but you get good sure living. You are your own master; you can't starve, or be turned out of business. It is brains that win on a farm, as everywhere else, and the smart man is going to ride while the stupid one goes on foot; in the corn-field, as well as in the bar or pulpit. I should like to have my hearing again, but I would not leave the farm again if I had it."

A perplexed German.

A perplexed German, who had made a garment for a youth, and found himself unable to dispose of the surplus fullness which appeared when trying it on the young candidate, declared vehemently that "de coat is good. It is no fault of de coat. The poy is too slim."
The young people had just settled down in their new house and had engaged a very capable servant. At the third breakfast the husband said, "My darling, why are these hairs in the hash?" She replied, "Pet, it is only a misplaced switch."

Three men were carried over Niagara Falls about three weeks ago, they having been stuck shooting near Navy Island, and their boat being caught between two large cakes of ice, from which they were unable to extricate it until too late.

A curate in England, while marrying a couple that came without the parents of the bride, asked, "Who gives the woman away?" When the would-be husband replied, "Nobody; I'm taking her myself."

Ten millions of cattle are annually slaughtered in this country to supply the home demand for meat, which is valued at $400,- 000,000.

Getting married is a good deal like a game of whist—it depends altogether on what kind of a hand you hold.

A Chinaman at Waco, Texas, has married an American woman. Both are toiling in the cotton-fields.

A wild bull can easily work himself into a scurried fever.

Judged by His Own.

One Sunday, during the war, the late Sexton Brown, of Grace Church, New York, was performing the duties of chief usher at the church, when a soldier, who presented a rather seedy appearance, walked up the main aisle and took a seat near the chancel. All at once there was a buzz among the congregation, and the sexton stepped up to the stranger, tapped him on the shoulder and said:
"I will show you a seat, sir."

The soldier rose and followed Brown; who led him to a rear pew. As he entered the pew, and was about to sit down, the stranger removed his faded overcoat, and disclosed a handsome, bran new military suit, with the straps of a major general upon the shoulders. There was another hum of conversation and a rustling of silks as the congregation moved in their seats to obtain a glimpse of the man. Again Sexton Brown approached the soldier, and said to him:

"General, I would be pleased to give you a good seat."

"Oh, never mind," said the military gentleman, "I'm much obliged to you.

I've been among the commoners for the last year or two, and guess I can worship God back here among them as well as up in front."

Brown retired as gracefully as possible, and was quite surprised, before the service was over, to learn that the soldier in the seedy overcoat was Major-General N. P.

Banks, at that time under orders to take one of the most important commands in the army.

Simpson, the actor, would never take any medicine, and his medical man was obliged to resort to some sort of stratagem in order to impose a dose upon him. There is a play in which the hero is sentenced, in prison, to drink a cup of poison. Harry Simpson was playing this character one night, and had given directions to have the cup filled with port wine; but that was his error, when he came to drink it, to find that it contained a dose of snuff. He could not throw it away, as he had to hold the goblet upside down, to show his persecutors he had drunk every drop of it. Simpson drank the medicine with the slowness of a poisoned martyr, but he never forgave his medical man, as was proved at his death, for he died without paying his bill.

No class of men are more exposed to swindlers than farmers. A member of the Legislature of Maine recently ascended to escape the consequences of a charge of swindling the public through the mails. It alleged that he has been soliciting business by circulars for certain manufacturing companies; that he "advertised a corn sheller for $4 50 which is simply a piece of sheet iron three inches long," and also a "mower and knife sharpener" for $5, which is a piece of wood, shaped like a file, dipped in shellac and sand, costing two cents.

A medical man in Pennsylvania, while attending a severe case of diphtheria, is said to have received some of the virus on a sore spot on his hand, and to have died a day or two afterward in consequence. The bad effects were felt within two hours of the inoculation.

A Hartford small boy, who wrote to Gen.

Garfield after the elect on telling him he had built bonfires, yelled and yelled and did all he could for the cause and asking for the acknowledgment of his letter, has received a photograph of the President-elect with his autograph.

THE BOERS.

There's a heap of trouble on old England's mind about these times on account of those troublesome Boers, who are fighting for their homes and freedom. They have again defeated the English troops with great slaughter, killing the English General and several of his officers. As the civilized world become better acquainted with the whys and wherefores of this war, which is attracting greater attention as it progresses, the greater sympathy felt for the Boers—a sympathy that is being expressed in a substantial manner. The British Government took possession of and annexed the original country of the Boers, whereupon 80,000 moved 1,000 miles further North, to a country unknown to the British, and all within twelve months, and made new homes, expecting to be left by themselves, a free and independent people; but they were doomed to a cruel disappointment—the British followed their trail, and by proclamation, annexed their country in the name of the British Queen, hence this war, which the Boers propose to wage as long as a Britisher remains in their country. Meetings of sympathy are being held in the United States, and the French and Germans are disposed to extend substantial aid to the oppressed Boers.

STARTLING.—Now comes alarming news from Sacramento. The Bee says that on the 13th day of last July Venus was only 158,000,000 miles from the earth, but it was 66,000,000 miles the other side of the sun, which, however, it scooted around at the moderate speed of 77,000 miles per hour, and switching off towards the earth, it has maintained that speed without stopping, and will keep it up this way until it comes to within 26,000,000 miles of Bridgeport, when it takes the back track, when it appears six times larger than it appeared on the other side of the sun. This coming at the rate of 1,348,000 miles per day would have been bad for our world, had it continued this route two weeks more—narrow escape that! A month ago Saturn, Jupiter and Venus were in line, in the order noted, but the latter has passed to the east of the others, and the line is Venus, Saturn and Jupiter. Oh the 27th inst. Venus will be brightest, though one-fourth only of its illuminated disk can be seen. It will cast a shadow, and can be seen in the daytime, with the naked eye, forty degrees east of the sun. It will make a transit of the sun at the end of the time it will next be evening star, which will be December 6th, 1882, and it will be over one hundred years before there will be another. It will be the fifth observed by astronomers, and will be of great value in furnishing data by which to measure distances and magnitudes among heavenly bodies.

MORE MALES THAN FEMALES.—The Census Office announces the following approximate distribution of the total population of the country among the several classes:—Males, 25,520,582; females, 24,632,284; native of United States, 43,475,606; foreign born, 6,667,360; whites, 43,404,877; colored, 6,567,151; Indians and half-breeds not in tribal relations on reservations under the care of the Government, 65,122; Chinese, 102,463; other Asiatics, 255. The number of colored persons to each 100,000 whites is 15,153, against 14,528 in 1870. The number of females to each 100,000 males is 96,519, against 97,801 in 1870. The number of foreign born persons, to every 100,000 natives is 15,359, against 16,875 in 1870.

The Virginia Enterprise says that the Frenchman who owns the herd of camels ranging to the eastward in the valleys bordering the Carson river will utilize his "ships of the desert" this Summer in carrying goods from the terminus of the Carson and Colorado Railroad into camp out into the wilderness. The camels now number forty, all but two or three of whom are natives of Nevada. In our deserts these animals find grasses and fitter and prickly shrubs and plants suited to their taste.

Up till Wednesday last the National banks had deposited $7,132,979 for retirement of circulation. We hope the Government will burn the notes and thus punish the banks for creating a panic. The National Banking system is a Republican measure, but I will go to the wall before the party will sanction threats of this nature.

The shearing corrals of Adrian Mandis at Deano, Kern county, present a scene of activity. No less than 120 shearers are engaged in shearing 200,000 sheep. It is estimated that there will be quite this number, or more, shown at the Deano corrals this season, including the Haggin and other large flocks.

The N. Y. Sun's leading editorial Feb. 28th, congratulating the people of New York that Charles J. Folger is to remain Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, having declined to take the seat offered him in the Cabinet.

The mortality in New York City since the 1st of January has been unprecedented. 6,348 deaths having occurred since that date.

NEW ADMINISTRATION.

The Administration of President Garfield commenced yesterday under auspicious circumstances, succeeding, as it does, the successful Administration of Hayes. The nomination of Hayes was far from acceptable to his party, and the fortunate admission of Colorado into the Union, alone saved it from defeat. This narrow escape from ruin, coupled with the excitement and irritation consequent upon the counting of the vote; and his actions in regard to Louisiana and South Carolina, disgusted a large number of Republicans in every section of the country, and the feeling thus engendered was not wholly dissipated until the nomination of General Garfield. But notwithstanding all these, the Administration of President Hayes was a success, and he retired from office leaving the country never in a more prosperous condition. President Garfield enters upon his duties with the cordial support of the entire Republican Party; the good-will of many Democrats, and hopefulness of the people of the Southern States. He finds prosperity on every hand; all branches of business in successful operation; extensive internal improvements in progress and contemplation; National credit unlimited, and a happy and contented people. We believe that the President will faithfully administer the Government in accordance with the principles of the Republicans; that it will be acceptable to both sections, and that in 1884 his policy will have made his party stronger than ever, and that a number of Southern States will cast their fortunes with it.

A GOOD SHOWING.—The Bodie mines are still "petering out" splendidly. In February bullion to the amount of $321,265.33 was shipped from that town, an increase of $45,575.43 over the January shipments. The Standard shipped $240,841.59—$55,275.89 more than its January output. The Bodie shipped $37,394.06; Noonday, $30,357.33; Syndicate, $4,561.07; Concordia, $2,234.29; Scattering, $5,576.93. If the Standard strikes a bonanza in their drifts on the 1,000-level, as counted on, there is just no telling how much the monthly shipments of the Standard will foot up. The metropolis of Mono will not collapse as long as the backbone of the Standard remains as stiff as it is. Bodie, to-day, is unquestionably the best mining district in the country. Dull times cannot make the ores of that district any the less valuable. Bodie has the "boss", mine in the Standard, and it will prove itself the "boss" mining district of this continent when the Noonday, the Oro, Spaulding, and other "sooth end" mines attain a greater development.

WHAT A CHANCE.—According to revelations made in Court on Saturday there were only four bona fide stockholders present at the last annual meeting of the California Mining Company. Three of these gentlemen owned five shares each and the other two shares. The whole stock held by them was not worth $20 at present market rates. The capital of the Company is divided in 510,000 shares. The mine has paid over $30,000,000 in dividends in the past six years, and in January, 1875, was rated at $42,120,000. Yet at the last annual meeting, only four stockholders—all Directors—came to attend the meeting. There were 406,253 shares of its stock represented at the meeting, but most of it, as already remarked, was voted by virtue of the proxies held by the gentlemen present. —S. F. Bulletin, Feb. 26th.

On Tuesday night, while the Minnesota Legislature was in session, the State Capitol at St. Paul took fire and was totally destroyed. The fire spread so rapidly that some of the members had to escape by a ladder, and received slight burns. The records were saved in a vault.

MINERS' HOSPITAL.—Wasson's Miners' Hospital Act passed both branches of the Legislature and is undoubtedly a law. It is said that Mackey, Fair, and other mining men of this coast will endorse it liberally. Well done, then good and faithful servant, Joe Wasson!

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL.—Agreeably with the notice given in our last issue a number of parents and friends of our Sunday School met at the School House after the services Sunday afternoon last, and discussed the affairs of the School, but no definite understanding was arrived at as to the best steps to take to add to its efficiency. However, a musical entertainment and social party will probably be given as soon as the musical talent of Bridgeport can be sufficiently harmonized for a public exhibition. Mrs. Judge Leavitt was present at the meeting and kindly tendered the use of the parlors of the Leavitt House to hold the next meeting, and an adjournment was ordered till Wednesday evening, when the Leavitt parlors were filled with friends of the cause. A number of pieces were sung with the fine organ accompaniment, and it was plainly seen that we have in our midst musical talent of great merit, requiring but little practice of choruses, etc., to enable us to give a creditable musical exhibition. There will be another meeting at the School House to-morrow afternoon.

IMPROVEMENTS.—With the opening of Spring we may expect lively times in the building line in Bridgeport. Lumber is arriving for the new store and dwelling to be erected by L. E. Wedertz on lower Main street, and next to J. W. Towle's fine residence. Lynch & Foley have the contract, and work was commenced to-day. This improvement will have a frontage of 36 feet on Main street, by 20 deep, and will be a story and a half high. There will be an L to it, 36x14 feet. This will give our town four general merchandise stores. A number of new private residences are in contemplation, and improvements will be made to many of our old habitations. Bridgeport is the pleasant place in the county for a residence, and when we are connected with Bodie by a narrow-gauge railroad the business and professional men of that live camp will have their families reside in our town—the Oakland, as it were, of that camp.

CHANGING.—Hotels, restaurants and saloons in Bodie are as changeable as the stock market. Of the hotels only four—Bodie House, W. A. Johnson; Occidental, Kemp & Coleman; Mono, King & Bennett; Noonday, Josiah Brown, have not changed. The Can Can restaurant, Geo. Callahan, and United States Bakery and Chop Stand, Wilms & Co., have not changed. Barney Clark, Wm. Davison, Pat Fahy, A. A. Carion, Cullen & McElmott and Alex. Wittmann's saloons—six of over one hundred, have not changed. In almost every instance the changes have resulted disastrously to creditors.

BACK AGAIN.—William Clinton Haight, one of the Bodie bullion robbers, and who turned State's evidence, and while awaiting the trial of his confederates, skipped the county and went to his home in Connecticut, was on Wednesday last delivered to Sheriff Taylor by Detective Davis, who went East with a requisition from Governor Perkins, and found his "bird." Haight will now be well looked after until the Courts act on his case.

COLLECTOR AT LENDY.—Constable Maestretti, of Homer Township, was promulgating around Bridgeport on Sunday last, and made us a social call. Mr. Maestretti has opened a collection office in Lundy, and will give prompt attention to the collection of all accounts entrusted to him. See his advertisement under "New To-day."

NEW STORE.—Under "New To-day" is the advertisement of J. H. Page, of Bodie, late of Page, Wheaton & Co. Mr. Page is located on the corner of Main and Mill streets, Melloni's Building, and has the newest store in town. It is filled with the best and freshest of goods, which he offers at low prices for cash.

MINERAL PATENTS ISSUED.—Private notices from Washington inform us that U. S. Patents have been issued to the Los Angeles Mining and Smelting Co. for the Ballon Lode and Mill Site, Ingot Lode, Syndicate Lode, Gunsight Lode and the First North Extension Gunsight Lode, in Bodie District.

THE COMING "BOOM."—As the Bodie doctors have long expected a "boom," of which the streets and back yards of that town give great promise, will soon arrive, H. Ward, one of Bodie's undertakers, has returned from San Francisco with a large invoice of silver plate and ornaments for burial cases.

HUYER NOT.—Mrs. E. Brearley has leased the restaurant connected with the Occidental Hotel, at Bodie. From personal experience we can guarantee the best of meals wherever Mrs. Brearley has the management. See new advertisement in another column.

FURNITURE.—We call attention to the advertisement of Charles Kelly & Co., furniture dealers and undertakers, of Bodie, who have a large stock of fine furniture, picture frames, shades, etc., on sale at living prices. Call on the "boys."

FINE TROUT.—The Indians are keeping our citizens well supplied with fine trout from Walker river.
